

The Staff of the Trinidad and Tobago Fair Trading Commission Participates in Virtual Merger Workshop

Staff of the Trinidad and Tobago Fair Trading Commission recently participated in the USDoJ/BFTC three-day Virtual Merger Workshop held between Monday 12th September and Wednesday 14th September 2022. This workshop was part of the organizers' efforts to build the capacity of staff in National Competition Agencies in the CARICOM region.

Presentations were delivered by Mr. Fredrick Young, Mr. Garrett Liskey and Mr. Jacob Burgdorf from the United States Department of Justice, Anti-Trust Division who provided an insightful overview of merger review concepts and processes while also facilitating interactive practical exercises for the participants.

In addition to staff of the Trinidad and Tobago Fair Trading Commission, other attendees at the Workshop included representatives of the Barbados Fair Trading Commission, the Jamaica Fair Trading Commission, the Guyana Competition and Consumer Affairs Commission and the CARICOM Competition Commission.

The Commission wishes to thank the United States Department of Justice, Anti-Trust Division and the Barbados Fair Trading Commission for arranging this extremely productive workshop and for providing the necessary technical assistance for our staff.
