Fair Trading Commission to Host Tenth Anniversary Seminar Event

The Fair Trading Commission (“the Commission”) will be hosting its Tenth Anniversary Seminar event which is scheduled for Wednesday 12th June 2024.

The theme for the event is “Ten Years of Evolution: Promoting, Protecting and Maintaining Competition in Trinidad and Tobago”.

This tenth anniversary Seminar will feature a number of panellists representing various national and international institutions and organizations during the morning and afternoon sessions. The main objective of the seminar is to discuss and highlight the evolution and advancement of the work of the FTC since its establishment in 2014 through the sharing of various perspectives by our distinguished and knowledgeable panellists.

Presentations are expected to be delivered by stakeholders from the United States Federal Trade Commission, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development, the CARICOM Competition Commission, the Law Association of Trinidad and Tobago, the Trinidad and Tobago Chamber of Industry and Commerce, the Trinidad and Tobago Manufacturers’ Association and the National Entrepreneurship Development Company Limited.
